6. The contractor will supply ragi grain to be ground by convicts, which will be issued as flour.

The supply to be calculated and payment made upon the quantity of flour so issued, at the rate of the ragi grain.

7. The Superintendent does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender, and he may reject any tender without assigning any reason for it.

8. The deposits of the successful tenderers will be retained, and will be forfeited if they fail to execute the contract bond or to furnish security to the amount of Rs. 1,500 (Rupees one thousand and five hundred) for grains, Rs. 100 (Rupees one hundred) for condiments and Rs. 400 (Rupees four hundred) for other necessaries, in cash or Government paper, within one week from the date of the acceptance of their contracts being made known to them.

9. The contract for supplies shall be entered into for the whole year, at the end of which alone final adjustment of accounts will take place. In the meanwhile, to facilitate supplies, advances to the extent of the value of supplies made in a month will be made to the contractor at the end of that month, by which time, bills with vouchers must be submitted duly signed by him (contractor) in presence of the Superintendent. The amounts thus advanced will be set off against the amount payable to the contractor at the end of the year for things supplied by him. These advances are not liable to be attached by Civil Courts.

10. Store rooms will be made over to the contractors in which they can keep all non-perishable articles, of which not less than one month's supply must always be in store. The Government shall have a lien on the grains, etc., stored from time to time by the contractor on the Jail premises, for the amounts advanced to him from time to time. Perishable articles such as vegetables, mutton, etc., must be at the Jail by 7 A.M. daily.

11. A fine not exceeding Rs. 50 will be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Jail for any infringement of the stipulation of the contract or for the supply of inferior articles, and if frequently violated, the contract may be annulled and the security confiscated to the Government.

12. The decision of the Superintendent to be final in all questions of infringement of contract.

13. The contractor will be bound to purchase vegetables and other garden produce required for the use of the prisoners, from the Jail at the contract rates.

14. Any further information can be obtained by applying to the Superintendent's office.

15. The accepted tender will be subject to confirmation by the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, who reserves to himself the right of rejecting all or any of the tenders.

16. If the contractors are unwilling or unable to carry out their agreement, they shall give at least one month's notice and shall be liable to forfeit the security money to Government.

17. The contractors will also be bound to make good to Government any loss which may arise from their failure or by Government having to purchase the articles specified in the contracts in the local markets at higher rates than those contracted for.

N. B.—No concession of any kind will be allowed in the contracts.

Notice dated 9th December 1911.
